RE: Court Hearing Dates and Locations Through December 31, 2000

As a convenience to court users, starting immediately the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, District of Vermont will conduct hearings and hold motion calendars in Burlington as well as Rutland. In Burlington, the court will sit at the U.S. District Court, in the Federal Building at 11 Elmwood Avenue. The court's Rutland location will remain the same. As a matter of course, the courtroom deputy will make every effort to schedule hearings in the location most convenient for the parties, given noticing and time constraints. Court users may also, in their transmittal letters, request a particular location, and every effort will be made to grant that request.

Court hearing dates[†] and locations through December 31, 2000, are as follows:
